Dr. Raymond B. Allen
Chancellor
University of California
Los Angeles, California

Dear Ray:

I received your September 25 letter upon my return from quite an extended world trip and find that I once again missed the pleasure of seeing you when you were in Washington.

I certainly hope that better fortune is with us next time so that we can make connections at long last.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

September 25, 1956

Mr. Allen W. Dulles, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Allen:

I expect to be in Washington on Tuesday morning, October 2, and would like to drop in and see you briefly then if you have a few free minutes.

I will call your office about nine o'clock that morning from the Cosmos Club. If your secretary wishes to leave a message for me at the Club, that will be fine.

Sincerely,

Ray

For Record:

Called Desk Clerk of Cosmos 1:00 PM
1 Oct and left message Mr D would not return until middle of Oct.
Leave my name and phone no. if
Mr Allen wanted to call.

CONFIDENTIAL

MEMORANDUM FOR: MR. DULLES

I left word at the Cosmos Club you were out of the city when Dr. Allen was here.

You may recall that he was in Washington last May 30th. He had checked out of his hotel when you called.
